The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach, disclose, or suggest the claimed limitations of (in combination with all other limitations in the claim), a method for manipulating an electronic document automatically created by an application program, said method comprising the steps of: identifying a user invoked manipulation of said electronic document to determine if said invoked manipulation is one of a predetermined group of manipulations, wherein if said invoked manipulation is not a member of said group, allowing said invoked manipulation to proceed, or if said invoked manipulation is a member of said group, allowing said manipulation to proceed in respect of a predetermined portion of said electronic document, wherein said predetermined portion is defined by a provider of said application program. as claimed in claim 1. Similar features are claimed in claims 13 and 25. Therefore, claims 13 and 25 are allowable over the prior art of record for the same reasons.
